Paris, France – Campus, Destination, Visas, Cost of Living, Working

The Paris Campus thrives on the inspirational ambience and academic distinction of this incomparable capital city. Living and studying here, you can see yourself following in the footsteps of many of the world's greatest thinkers, artists and pioneers.

We are situated in one of the liveliest areas of Paris, on the south or Left Bank of the Seine. Surrounded by pleasant greenery, restaurants for all budgets, cafés and open-air markets, the campus is a short ride or a stroll from the Eiffel Tower, Les Invalides, the École Militaire, Montparnasse and the historic Latin Quarter, long established as a student district.

Schiller's Paris campus is centrally located close to the Place de la Convention in the heart of the 15th district. Neighborhood restaurants and cafés offer a great variety of authentic French and international cuisine, while shops, cultural attractions and the Montparnasse train station are just a short walk or bus ride away.

Campus facilities include various classrooms, a library, computer lab with Internet access, and a student lounge. In addition to our library facilities, you may use the American Library of Paris (the largest English speaking library in Europe outside the UK) and many French libraries.

We will also assist you in finding lodging in nearby apartments, in private rooms with host families, or in Cité Universitaire (University of Paris) dormitories.
