

International Drama Foundation Programme

Cambridge School of Visual & Performing Arts is delighted to offer a specialist programme for International students looking to pursue a career or further study in the Performing Arts.

The three term International Drama Foundation programme combines Voice, Acting, Performance and Audition practice with English language tuition.

Students develop their understanding, ability and expertise in Drama and complete the course equipped with the skills and confidence required to make a success of future study.

Students benefit from tuition by leading professionals, one-to-one masterclasses, light and airy studios and a location in the centre of Cambridge.

Course Details:
The programme covers a range of disciplines designed to prepare students thoroughly for their next step which includes:

Evolution of Theatre

- Greek
- Elizabethan, modern and contemporary

Acting

- Stanislavski system
- Games, exercises and Improvisation
- Self awareness, character development and stage craft

One-to-one

- Monologues
- How to sell yourself at audition

The Audition

- Audition tuition/practice
- How to select the best audition piece
- Background reading

Choosing a University

- Visits to Universities
- Dedicated Higher Education department for application assistance.

A dedicated Higher Education department is solely responsible for helping students with their Higher Education applications, personal statements and interviews and auditions.

On successful completion of the International Drama Foundation students may apply for the Drama Foundation in association with RADA at Cambridge School of Visual & Performing Arts.

Programme Detail:

Programme length:
2 or 3 terms

Entry dates:
September or January

IELTS:
4.0+

Age:
17+

Tuition Fees:
£7,825 per term*

Accommodation:
from £2,050 per term

About Cambridge School of Visual & Performing Arts

Cambridge School of Visual & Performing Arts is the UK's leading provider of Art & Design and Drama pathway programmes, helping students make ambitious decisions about their futures. Our approach to creative learning is unique, highly personalised and guaranteed to ensure students meet their full potential. The School is close to the University Colleges of St John, the River Cam and the green space of Jesus Green. In 2009, students graduating from our Drama Foundation programmes achieved entry to many of the leading drama schools and universities such as Bristol Old Vic, Drama Centre (Central St Martins), Goldsmiths and Kingston.

	0900-1100	1100-1300	1400-1600	1400-1700	1700-1830
Monday	Movement		Lunch	English language - Greek texts	Dinner
Tuesday	Dance	Acting	Lunch	English language - Classical texts	Dinner
Wednesday	Warm-up Acting	Acting	Lunch	English language - Greek texts	Dinner
Thursday	Singing	Acting	Lunch	English language - Contemporary texts	Dinner
Friday	Warm-up Voice	Voice and Text	Lunch	English language - Greek texts	Dinner
Saturday	Individual time	Theatre visits, museum trips, rehearsal work, individual study			Dinner
Sunday	Individual time	Theatre visits, museum trips, rehearsal work, individual study			Dinner

Get in touch.
We'd love to hear from you.

Central Admissions
3rd Floor, Sidney House,
Sussex Street
Cambridge
CB1 1PE