

LEVEL 2 DIPLOMA in INTERNATIONAL TOURISM

Starting Date:

1st January (8 months)
1st June (8 months)
1st October (8 months)

Qualifications awarded

Level 2 Diploma in International Tourism with accreditation by City and Guilds examination

Candidate selection process

Selection procedures consist of a written and spoken English test, and a telephone interview with a course specialist.

Entry qualifications

Applicants should have a satisfactory level of general education and a good command of English.

All applicants should have a satisfactory school leaving certificate, and must be 16 years of age on the 31st August.

Public Holidays:
Feb 10
Mar 19
Mar 31
Apr 02
Apr 04
May 01

City & Guilds
Approved Centre

About City & Guilds

City & Guilds provides assessment and certification services for or in co-operation with schools and colleges, business and industry, trade associations and government agencies in more than 100 countries. City & Guilds has over 120 years of experience in identifying training needs, developing assessment materials, administering assessments and training assessment personnel.

City & Guilds awards certificates to individuals who have demonstrated mastery of competences that are based on worldclass standards set by industry. City & Guilds provides a dedicated service to customers around the world who require a high-quality provision for assessment and certification.

Aims of the course

To gain a vocational qualification in international tourism at a supervisory level. The programme is designed to equip students with a broad range of skills used in the tourism industry by supervisors and team leaders. It will also help to develop social and professional skills, and improve levels of communication in English.

Course content

The International Tourism programme is taught in self contained units of study called modules. Each level of studies is comprised of a core of compulsory modules which provide the essential knowledge, in addition to some optional modules.

The core modules at diploma level are:

- The development of the tourism industry
- International tourism geography
- Customer service operations
- People development
- Business systems
- Marketing operations
- Related tourism services

Options available at the end of the course

Depending on final grades, students completing the course can either enter the Tourism Industry at supervisory level, or progress to a Level 3 Advanced Diploma in International Tourism.

Price includes the following: Registration fee - Welcome pack - Course material
Progress report - End of course certificate - Free internet café & Free Wi-Fi - Library
Study Room - Games Room

Course Price: €2500