

Altitude believes selecting the right camp for children should never be a simple decision. We believe when choosing a camp for children, it is important to have reliable recommendations from parents, teachers, agents or indeed the children themselves.

“After sending our other children to several other camps we can truly say this was the most personalized, quality, memorable experience of all. Jon and his staff gave us complete comfort in sending our youngest daughter to another country. On a scale of 10 the entire experience was an 11! Good luck!” Rhonda (Saige’s Mum) - Italy

“Pedro had a great time and he was very happy when we collected him. Many thanks for all your care and attention during the program.”
Americo (Pedro’s Dad) – Switzerland

“Since returning back to England, Jamie has already chatted with his new friends from Belgium, Lebanon, USA and Italy. He has come back full of confidence and determination to continue developing his new found skills. Thank you to everybody at Altitude for giving him such positive memories.”
Marie Pauline (Jamie’s Mum) – England

“ I loved the camp and miss everyone already. The counselors felt like my brothers and sisters. Next year I am going to come back with lots of my friends! ”
